Qantas Club Benefits

At the Airport

Faster, smarter check-in

As a Qantas Club member you have access to a range of domestic check-in options regardless of your class of travel.

Streamline your check-in by using your new 'intelligent Q' chip enabled Qantas Club card at a Q Card Reader at selected domestic airports. Your Qantas Club card can also be used as your boarding pass.

Or choose to check in online or use mobile or kiosk check-in where available.

Dedicated Check-in

- Domestic: Qantas Club members can access the Premium Service Desk to check-in or for assistance and booking change requests. Alternatively, if you're only carrying hand luggage you can also check in at most major domestic Australian Qantas Club lounges.
- International: Check in at dedicated Qantas Club counters available at most airports. You must be travelling on a Qantas operated service with a Qantas flight number.

Extra checked baggage allowance

Take advantage of extra checked baggage allowance on most Qantas flights when travelling in economy or premium economy.⁺

On Departure Upgrade requests for Qantas Australian Domestic flights

You may use your Frequent Flyer points to upgrade one class on domestic flights within Australia (where a seat is available) from Economy to Business (excluding Qantas & Partner Classic Awards).[~]

Priority Waitlist and Airport Standby

You will be given priority on fully booked Qantas flights when travelling on a paid ticket and where waitlisting is possible. Please note that waitlisting is not available on most discounted Economy airfares.

Discounts on Qantas Meeting Rooms Rates

Available in Sydney T3, Melbourne, Brisbane, Adelaide, Darwin, Townsville and Canberra domestic terminals, Qantas Meeting Rooms offer a convenient venue to host meetings at the airport.

The Qantas Meeting Rooms cater for up to 22 guests[#] and are fully licensed with multiple catering options, meeting facilities including free wireless Internet, a break-out area, plasma presentation screens, teleconferencing, as well as photocopying and faxing services.

In the Lounge

As a Qantas Club member, you'll be welcome in Qantas Club, Qantas International Business Lounges, partner airline and associated airline lounges worldwide. So, whether you're travelling for business or leisure, you can look forward to a more comfortable pre-flight experience.

The Qantas Club

Most Qantas Club lounges feature complimentary refreshments, business facilities including wireless internet throughout the lounges and shower facilities.

Qantas Club members and Partner members are welcome at The Qantas Club when your next onward flight that day is on a Qantas or Jetstar Airlines* flight number. When flying domestically you may invite one guest.

International Business Lounges

Most International Business Lounges feature complimentary bar service, fresh snacks and beverage selection, news and entertainment.

When visiting an International Business Lounge you may bring one guest who must be travelling with you on the same flight.

Qantas Regional Lounges

Available in Broome, Coffs Harbour, Devonport, Emerald, Gladstone, Kalgoorlie, Karratha, Launceston, Mackay, Port Hedland, Rockhampton and Tamworth. Qantas Regional Lounges feature light refreshments, wireless internet and comfortable seating.

When visiting a Qantas Regional Lounge you may bring one guest. Qantas Club members and Partner members are welcome at The Qantas Club when your next onward flight that day is on a Qantas or Jetstar Airlines* flight number.

Partner Lounges

When travelling with American Airlines, as a Qantas Club member you and a guest are welcome at American Airlines Admirals Club lounges. Simply present your Qantas Club card together with your boarding pass at the lounge reception. Both you and your guest need to be travelling together further that day on a flight marketed[^] and operated by the partner airline whose lounge you wish to visit.

Qantas Club Members will be welcomed at the Emirates Business Lounge in Dubai when their next onwards flight that day is with Qantas.

When travelling from London, Qantas Club Members will have access to the American Airlines Admirals Lounge at London Heathrow when their next onwards flight that day is with Qantas between Australia, Dubai and London.

Associated Lounges

You will be welcome in any associated lounges at international ports to which Qantas flies, but where it does not operate its own lounge or partner airline lounge.⁺ Our Associated lounges are operated by, or on behalf of, other airlines.

Present your Qantas Club card with your boarding pass at the lounge reception. You may also invite one guest who must be travelling with you on the same flight.

Invite a guest

You are welcome to invite family, friends or a colleague to join you in the lounge. If you're flying domestically on Qantas, QantasLink or Jetstar within Australia, and on Jetstar within New Zealand you may bring one guest to join you in a Qantas Club lounge.

When visiting an international Qantas Club lounge, you are able to invite one guest each time you visit. Both you and your guest need to be travelling together further that day on the same flight.

Annual Guest Card

If you'd like someone to accompany you in a Qantas Club lounge on a regular basis you can purchase an Annual Guest card.[~]

Children in Lounges

Our lounges are places where our members can relax and unwind or keep on working. We ask that children under the age of 18 years are accompanied by an adult and that they are closely supervised.

Customers under the legal drinking age must be accompanied by an adult in any Qantas operated lounge. Legal drinking age may vary in different jurisdictions and countries.
