Quamby Estate – Free TCCI member benefit

Invigorating Business

Was it your New Year's resolution to grow your business in 2010?

Our new CEO Robert Wallace, in conjunction with the Board and Members of the Tasmanian Convention Bureau invites you as a valued member of the TCCI, to the first Networking Night in the Launceston area for 2010.

Join us to make the most of these great business development nights by bringing a colleague business associate or a customer. This event will give you the opportunity to speak directly to other businesses and TCB members to help you promote and market yourself or your organisation.

About the Venue: Quamby Estate is a picturesque country estate and magnificent heritage-listed homestead that has been converted into a luxury lodge. Set in 64 hectares, Quamby Estate is not only home to the magnificent Quamby Homestead but has a superb 9-hole golf course and a restaurant offering a picture book venue for this Networking event.

There is the opportunity for a site inspection on request before or after the function.

This is a great opportunity to network with the broader business community!

As part of the Networking Night you will be invited to:

- Meet our CEO – Robert Wallace & TCCI Board members
- Promote and market your business
- Opportunity to address TCCI & TCB members
- Discover new products offered by the TCCI and local businesses
- Learn more about TCCI services
- Distribute your business cards & promotional material
- Meet TCCI Staff members
- Meet our sponsors
- Secure business leads
