

Skills and Training

Grow your own star employee!

Worker Ready Business Series

Workshop 4: Leadership and Competitive Advantage

Advantage

- Learn how to coach more effectively for development of workplace skills and behaviours
- Building your in house capacity to coach reduces the need to pay for external training
- Use internal expertise for specific technical skills
- External programs for positive development or self-identified training need not to address a deficiency
- Reduce turnover and recruitment costs
- Reputation as a good employer increases your competitive advantage while making your business more desirable for employees.

Who should attend?

This workshop is ideal for any business looking to improve their competitive advantage, through in house development and productivity.

Who should attend?

This workshop is ideal for any business looking to improve the Induction and training of new employees.

Delivery Information

Duration: 2 hours

Investment

The two hour workshops will be held monthly, in Launceston and Hobart. This program is available at no cost to Tasmanian Businesses thanks to the support of Skills Tasmania.

Visit TCCI Training Calendar for dates.